

Tumbledown Manor by Helen Brown

I couldn't find any questions so we will use:

Discussion Questions You Can Use with Any Book

1. What was unique about the setting of the book and how did it enhance or take away from the story?
2. If this book were to be made into a movie, who would you cast for the main characters?
3. What specific themes did the author emphasize throughout the novel? What do you think he or she is trying to get across to the reader?
4. What are the major conflicts in the story?
5. Who are the prominent characters in the book? Do the characters seem real and believable? Can you relate to their predicaments? To what extent do they remind you of yourself or someone you know?
6. How do characters change, grow or evolve throughout the course of the story? What events trigger such changes?
7. In what ways do the events in the books reveal evidence of the author's world view? • Did certain parts of the book make you uncomfortable? If so, why did you feel that way? Did this lead to a new understanding or awareness of some aspect of your life you might not have thought about before?
8. How would you react if you were in the same situation?
9. Have any of the events in this book ever happened to you? How did you resolve the situations?
10. If the author were to write a sequel to this book, what do you think would happen to the characters

